

MEXICO MAINTAINS OMINOUS SILENCE

FOREIGN MINISTER DECLINES TO DISCUSS RELATIONS WITH GERMANY

(By Associated Press.)
MEXICO CITY, April 7.—Ernest Garza Perez, acting minister of foreign affairs, declined to forecast or comment upon the attitude of Mexico in view of the declaration of war between Germany and the United States. He declared he had received no formal notice and that he could not discuss Mexico's attitude until after President-elect Carranza had been formally notified that a state of war exists. Other Mexican officials were equally reticent. General Carranza and other leaders having taken advantage of the holiday to stay away from their offices. The news was received quietly in both German and American colonies here.

WATER RIGHT ON HUMBOLDT RIVER

LONG STANDING DISPUTE MAY BE SETTLED BY THIS ACTION

Hugh H. Brown left this morning for Winnemucca to appear Monday in the district court in a preliminary matter in the case of Peter Anker versus State Engineer Kearney and 70 defendants. The case was filed several weeks ago. The defendants include all the water users on the Humboldt river and the Little Humboldt river. The case seeks to bring about a general adjudication of all water rights and also seeks to restrain the state engineer from exercising the functions conferred upon him by the Nevada statute, the plaintiff claiming that the statute is unconstitutional.
